An original Sacher-Torte will be delivered to your room with our compliments

The Hotel Sacher Vienna - In 1876, Eduard Sacher founded the Hotel Sacher in Vienna. He was the son of the creator of the Original Sacher-Torte, a unique chocolate cake. Soon after its creation, the Sacher became a world famous meeting point for politicians, artists and the aristocracy.

At glance out its windows shows the hotel's special location. It is right in the city center, close to the pedestrian shopping area Kärtnerstraße, opposite the Opera House and only a tiny walk away from St. Stephen's Cathedral, the Hofburg and the elegant Ringstraße, a road which boasts Vienna's major sites, such as the Burgtheater and the City Hall.

Superior Rooms

The rooms are about 322 sq.ft. and offer all amenities of a 5-star luxury hotel. Rooms were carefully decorated with elaborate antiques and original paintings by renowned artists. The bathrooms are light and friendly.

Deluxe Rooms -

Range between 377 to 538 sq.ft. offering top-of-the-range luxury and comfort. All rooms are individually furnished with beautiful furniture and art work and with inviting eating areas.

Junior Suites -

These are between 539 to 646 sq.ft. large and are especially elegant. A junior suite combines living room and bedroom, which can be kept private.
